CANADA AND NEW ENGLAND

Fiery sunsets and more than a few bucket list sights await the lucky traveller in Canada and New England. Our wide variety of itineraries highlight a region that is rustic, rugged and remote.

Aerial image of L'Anse aux Meadows, Newfoundland, Canada

Welcome to our first ever season of summer sailings in Canada and New England. This year we wanted to experience the region during the warmer months and we wanted to do it aboard our lovely Silver Shadow. We have added a special focus on the northern part of the region, visiting Newfoundland in northern Canada. The long days will allow us greater discovery of the region, permitting us to offer guests a vast spectrum of scenic variety. We have also added longer stays in Boston, meaning you can enjoy the epic fall foliage at your leisure. 2023/2024 is the season to polish up your French! We will be returning to Montreal after a long hiatus. If you like included shore excursions, a choice of ocean-going and expedition itineraries and the promise of scenically spectacular vistas, then this is the region for you.

NORTHERN EUROPE AND BRITISH ISLES

Relish revamped routes that take you around Norwegian Fjords and British Isles – or amp up the adventure on an expedition voyage through the northern Atlantic's most secluded corners.

The Cies Islands are located in the province of Pontevedra in the northwest of the Iberian Peninsula in Spain

Bergen, Norway

It is impossible to be immune to Northern Europe. We just love these rugged shores! The region is so compact and rich that even after 25 years of visits, we keep discovering new destinations. We are proud to say that this season is one of our best. Join us as we explore the holy island of Lindisfarne, remote fjords in the north of Finland and a whole new set of itineraries across the Baltic Sea. We've also added late season departures on some of our Norwegian fjords cruises, offering a chance to not only see this region at its autumnal best, but perhaps even spot the northern lights too! Our expedition fleet shines brightly here as well – extensive Zodiac and kayaking trips allow engaging excursions to remote islands, while Silver Cloud's new voyages (re)discover the British Isles at her summertime best.
